

OPERATIONAL EVALUATION COMMAND (OEC)

Mission: OEC conducts continuous, warfighter-informed testing and evaluation through a unified Continuous Evaluation Campaign to accelerate Army transformation, inform senior leader decisions, and ensure the Army fields dominant capabilities.

Vision: Warfighter-Validated: Empowering their voice for the future fight.

OEC PRIORITIES

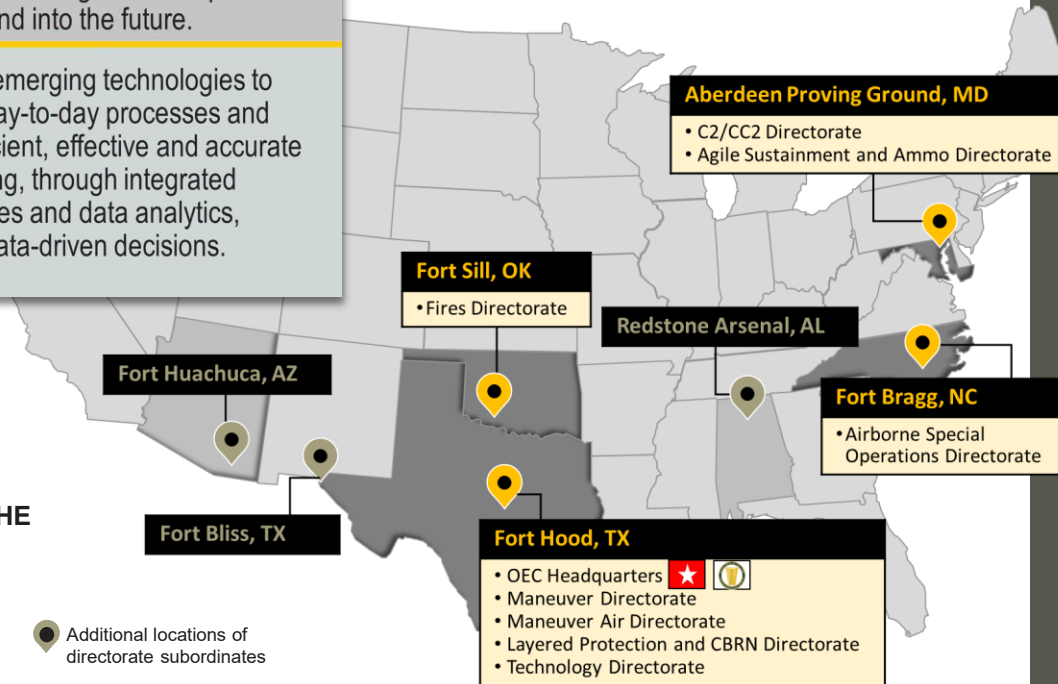

REAL SOLDIERS IN REALISTIC COMBAT CONDITIONS

REPRESENTATIVE ENVIRONMENTS

CONTINUOUS EVALUATIONS THROUGHOUT THE LIFE-CYCLE OF THE SYSTEM

BACKGROUND

Support for Army decisions:

- Army Transformation Initiative:
 - Provided support for 26 TiC events over FY25-26
 - 23 events with personnel on ground
 - 3 events remote/reach-back support
 - 20,000+ manpower hours from 28 MIL and 89 CIV dedicated to support units
 - 700+ programs supported
 - 1,100+ evaluation documents produced annually
 - 400+ T&E products and 700+ safety documents annually
- 8 test directorates in 4 locations
 - 14 supporting elements (total of 7 locations)
 - 11 sub-directorates
 - 3 divisions
- 1,300+ personnel
 - 28% military
 - 46% civilian
 - 26% contractors
- Highly technical and skilled workforce
- 75% of civilians are in science, engineering, and analysis
- Over 1.2M square feet in facilities and 39 acres of maintainable grounds

APPROVED FOR PUBLIC RELEASE